NEWS RELEASE

Paul Boskovich elected new Chair of BILD Alberta

EDMONTON, AB. – The Building Industry Land Development Alberta Association (BILD Alberta) is pleased to announce that Paul Boskovich has been elected as BILD Alberta’s fourth Chair of the Association to serve a term of one year.

“Over the past few years, I have had the opportunity to work with a dedicated group of board members helping shape this young organization with a long and proud history. The next year will have its challenges as we face unprecedented times but together our industry is resilient. I look forward to continuing to further the association’s advocacy efforts and putting forward innovative solutions that will make our industry stronger,” said Boskovich.

Boskovich is a well-known industry leader in Calgary. He has worked with Genstar Development Company for over 13 years where he is now President. Paul has a BA from UBC and an MBA from Haskayne School of Business. He previously served as Chair of BILD Calgary Region and the as 1st Vice Chair of BILD Alberta. Boskovich is succeeding Patrick Shaver of Edmonton, who will remain on the board in the position of Past Chair for one year.

Boskovich said, “It is such an integral time in our history and important that BILD Alberta continues to advocate as one of Alberta’s largest economic contributors. Our association will continue to pivot and adjust to today’s environment ensuring our voice is heard.”

BILD Alberta Association (Building Industry and Land Development) is the unified voice for the land development, home building and renovation industry in Alberta. BILD Alberta represents over 1,600 business members from 9 constituent associations committed to building communities throughout the province.
