

BILD Alberta Announces Volunteer Award Recipients

Edmonton, AB – The Building Industry and Land Development Alberta Association (BILD Alberta) is proud to recognize outstanding volunteers for their dedicated service to the industry. These awards celebrate the contributions of members who have advanced the industry and strengthened the association.

Hall of Fame Inductee: Tim Melton, Melcor Developments

BILD Alberta is honoured to induct Tim Melton into the Hall of Fame, an award that recognizes an individual for their significant and prolonged contributions toward the betterment of the industry. Tim is the Executive Chairman of Melcor Developments and a pivotal figure in Alberta's real estate landscape. Tim has been involved in all facets of the real estate business with Melcor, a company with roots dating back to 1923. Under his leadership, Melcor has not only grown to become a diversified real estate development and asset management company but also a community pillar deeply embedded in Edmonton and Alberta's growth.

Tim's community involvement is extensive, participating on numerous boards including the YMCA Foundation, Junior Achievement of Northern Alberta, University of Alberta, Art Gallery of Alberta, Children's Autism Services, and the Melton Foundation. Tim continues to show his support by mentoring the next generation of urban development leaders. His commitment to philanthropy and community development is a testament to his leadership and vision for a thriving Alberta.

Industry Leader Award: Patrick Shaver, Avillia Developments

The Industry Leader Award recognizes individuals who have played a unique role in advancing the industry and strengthening the association. This year, Patrick Shaver, owner and President at Avillia Developments, is the recipient of this esteemed award. With over 25 years of experience in land development and construction, Patrick has made significant contributions to the industry and to BILD Alberta. He has served in various leadership roles, including Chair of UDI Edmonton Region, UDI Alberta, and BILD Alberta.

Patrick's commitment to the industry has been instrumental in shaping policy and advocacy efforts within BILD Alberta, particularly through his work on the land development committee, where he has championed initiatives to streamline regulatory processes and promote innovation in land use and urban planning.

- More -

Exceptional Service Award: Aaron Brost, Brost Developments

The Exceptional Service Award is presented to outstanding BILD Alberta volunteers in recognition of their dedication and service to the association. This year's recipient, Aaron Brost of Brost Developments, exemplifies these qualities. Aaron has been a driving force behind the scenes, advocating for the industry's best interests on the Provincial Technical Committee and ensuring that code and legislative changes align with industry and customer needs.

He is known for his willingness to share knowledge, provide strategic advice, and assist in problem-solving during critical moments. His commitment extends beyond the formal obligations of his role, reflecting a deep dedication to the industry and the association.

- 30 -

Media Inquiries

Danielle Murray
Director of External Relations, BILD Alberta Association
danielle.murray@BILDalberta.ca
(780) 862-9789

Building Industry and Land Development Alberta Association (BILD Alberta) is the unified voice for Alberta's land development, home building and renovation industry. BILD Alberta represents over 1,300 industry members from six regional constituent associations committed to building communities throughout Alberta.